Scripture Text: John 3:1-8 MSG

SUBJECT: "The Joys Of Being Born Again"

INTRODUCTION: What we have before us this morning may very well be the most important and the most intriguing chapter in John's gospel account.

For in John chapter three, John, who is often referred to as the disciple whom Jesus loved, deals with some spiritually heavy stuff.

In today's text we find John dealing with the subject of the new birth.

I challenge your hearts today with the thought that some religious groups and denominations have so confused this subject that many average church members, let alone religious leaders like Nicodemus, have no idea what it means to be born again.

So, in an effort to help us better understand what it means to be born again I want to share with you some of the joys that belong to those who have experienced the new birth.

Sermon Points

Major Moment: The only way for the unsaved to have a right relationship with the Savior is that they must experience the joy of the new birth.
